DAY 02 Reykjavik
After breakfast Visit Golden Circle driving through Thingvellir National Park. This is a historical area where the Icelandic Parliament was held for several centuries.
It is also considered one of the geological wonders of the world; at Thingvellir you can see the effects of the tectonic plate movements which have opened various cracks and fissures in the earth's crust. After taking a walk in the unique landscape of Thingvellir, we continue to the famous geothermal area of Geysir. There the Strokkur hot spring ejects its water column high into the air every 5 – 10 minutes or so and numerous other small springs are boiling and bubbling. Then we only have a short drive to reach Gullfoss, a magnificent waterfall which Icelanders refer to as the "golden" waterfall, surely one of the most beautiful in Iceland.

Tonight, enjoy an Indian dinner.
