DAY 1

Guided City Tour - Visit the Tiananmen Square - Visit the Forbidden City – Visit the Yonghe Lamasery

After a buffet breakfast, embark on a guided city tour with an English speaking local guide. Visit Tiananmen Square, Beijing’s central landmark, home to the Monument to the People’s Heroes, the Great Hall of the People, the National Museum of China, and Mao Zedong’s Mausoleum. Later, explore the Forbidden City, and see the Imperial Palace of 24 Ming and Qing emperors and China’s political center for over 500 years. Declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1987, it remains a symbol of China’s rich history. After a local lunch, proceed to the Yonghe Lamasery also known as Harmony and Peace Palace Lamasery. Initially built in 1694 during the Qing Dynasty, the status of the dwelling was changed to a lamasery in 1744. Later, visit a pearl factory also called as Hongqiao Market, located in the south-central area of Beijing, east of the Temple of Heaven. Later, proceed to the Temple Of Heaven, the largest existing masterpiece among China’s ancient sacrificial buildings. In 1988, it was opened to the public as a park. Later stroll down the famous Hutongs narrow streets or alleys commonly associated with northern Chinese cities. Since the early 21st century, many hutongs have been designated as protected areas and zones, in an attempt to preserve this aspect of Chinese cultural history.
